

Datasprint workshop, 5-6 December 2024

(Huize Heyendaal, Geert Grooteplein Noord 9, Nijmegen, main salon)

How digital tools are reshaping women's literary history and reception studies: Harmonizing and interconnecting resources

Thursday 5 December

11.00 – 11.15 Opening by prof. dr. Liedeke Plate, director of RICH research institute

11.15 – 11.30 Introduction to the workshop and to the SHEWROTE project:
Thinking about reception and women's literary history (Alicia Montoya)

11.30 – 13.00 Data show and tell: 5 min. pitches on women's datasets and data-linking

Marie-Louise Coolahan (NUI Galway): RECIRC

Viola Parente-Čapková and Jasmine Westerlund (University of Turku): Texts on the Move

Nicole Pohl (Bodleian Libraries): Electronic Enlightenment

Alicia Montoya (Radboud University): MEDIATE

Irene Fernández Sáez (Complutense University): Women at the Spanish Court

Aron Ouwekerk (Utrecht University): Neo-Latin women writers

Laure Primerano (Leuven University): Women's collective biographies

Femke Valkhoff (Utrecht University): Early-modern Dutch women intellectuals

Miranda Lewis (Oxford University): WEMLO

Svenja Wagner (Trier University): Fürstinnenbibliotheken des 18. Jahrhunderts

Juliette Reboul (Cluny): BIBLIO

Sarah Hendriks (Trinity College Dublin): Virtual Record Treasury of Ireland

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 17.30 Datasprint: getting to know the databases, hands-on data-cleaning and Enrichment, bring your own laptop and/or database

19.00 Dinner in Nijmegen for speakers and Board (Restaurant Parkzicht)

Friday 6 December

- 9.00 – 10.00 Creating CERL identifiers: hands-on training
Marian Lefferts and Elena Liventsova (Consortium of European Research Libraries)
- 10.00 – 12.00 Hands-on work in CERL Thesaurus and continuation of datasprint
- 11.30 – 12.00 Person editing tools: CEN and Lenticular Lenses
Liliana Melgar (KNAW Humanities Cluster – Digital Infrastructure)
- 12.00 - 13.00 Persons and Person relations: how to align ontologies?
General discussion led by Dirk van Miert (Huygens Institute)
- 13.00 – 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00 – 15.45 Continuation of datasprint; hands-on data-cleaning and Enrichment, bring your own laptop and/or database
- 16.00 - 16.45 Keynote: Reassembling women-writer networks in the 18th century: The promise and perils of data-rich literary history
prof. dr. Glenn Roe (Sorbonne Université)
- 16.45 – 17.30 Closing remarks and discussion on where to go from here

We gratefully acknowledge the financial and moral support of the Radboud Institute for Culture and History (RICH), the Humanities Lab Faculty of Arts, and the Dutch Research Council (NWO), for making this workshop possible.

Radboud Institute for Culture & History

The Radboud Institute for Culture & History (RICH) is a research institute dedicated to exploring the present and the past through the lenses of culture, history, literature, and art. Our researchers collaborate with academic and societal partners to deepen our understanding of the dynamics of an interconnected world and provide context for pressing societal challenges such as inequality and climate change.